Days of accompanied prayer/Online individually guided retreats

A reminder that the Plymouth Diocesan Ignatian Spirituality Group continues to offer one-to-one days of accompanied prayer i.e. online individually guided retreats for three, four, five or six days. (Available via phone also) to suit people's individual circumstances. Members of the Ignatian Spirituality Group are experienced guides, who have received training in relation to Ignatian spirituality and include priests, deacons and lay people. Dates can be arranged to suit individuals. For further information or to book, contact the Diocesan Ignatian Spirituality Group by email diocesan-ignatian-retreats@prcdtr.org.uk or telephone: 01752769164 or 07823447637

There may be many who need to explore, make sense and reflect on the presence of God in their everyday lives, during the present challenging times, or perhaps in the more painful moments experienced recently. A number of people including those working from home have found this a valuable opportunity, including those who were new to the experience. Guides are also available for online Weeks of Accompanied prayer, which may be organised in your parish in the future.

NEW ONLINE PATCHWORK PARENTING COURSES LAUNCHED

Following feedback from parents earlier this year, we have now set up our 'Parenting through the Primary Years' and 'Hormones and Harmony' courses online to be run in the evenings from the beginning of March. These online courses are designed to be open to everyone as they are Diocesan wide, rather than school specific and we are hoping by offering courses in the evening, more parents will be able to access our free support. These online courses have been advertised on our CCSP Facebook page and have been sent out through the CAST school network.

MARRIAGE MATTERS (www.twainoneflesh.org.uk)

Third Sunday of Lent (Exodus 20:1-17 1Corinthians 1:22-25 John 2:13-25)

God's love is our strength

Let us remind each other constantly that our marriage is as unique and as special to God today as it was when we first married. We are blessed with a love that transforms ordinary everyday events into something quite different and special. Our faults and weaknesses become our strengths if we strive to love one another as God loves us.
